ady existing Test and day championships. Announcing this here on Tuesday ICC CEO Mal Speed said that the announcement 'was long over-'. Under the system, players are rated on a scale of 1 to 1000 points and the calculations carried out using a pre-programmed formulae. The players' ratings are calculated by combining their weighted performance in the latest match with their previous rating.

the Indian ace was not in his best form. In the first four rounds anand had just 1.5 points and was still looking for his first victory in Corus that is known as one of his favourite hunting grounds. Meanwhile, the standings in the category-19 event took a steep turn as in-form Veselin Topalov of Bulgaria was grounded by world champion finalist Michael Adams of England. For Adams it was the game of the event thus far as match, which proposed to pit him against FIDE world champion Rustam Kasimdzhamov of Uzbekistan. (PTI)

he outclassed Topalov in all departments of the game. In group 'C', Parimarjan Negi put up an improved performance and held higher-rated L Pliester to a draw. "I was perhaps better in the final position but it got repeated," Negi said. Tomorrow is the first rest day of the event and the battle will resume on Friday.

and Nathan Healey in the first round. They next face Russian duo Igor Andreev and Nicolay Davydenko.

Lisa-Hesh seeded No 3

■ Mahesh Bhupathi and Lisa Raymond of the US were seeded third in the mixed doubles event. Bhupathi and Raymond take on Australian duo Wayne Arthurs and Trudi Musgrave in the opening match. Martina Navratilova was paired with Max Mirnyi and the pair were seeded seven.
