

Review/Appeal Process

Access to documents on UNDP programmes and operations are available on UNDP Country Offices and Headquarters unit websites as well as websites of UNDP's Associated funds and programmes (Para 9.1 and 9.2 of the Information Disclosure Policy). If a member of the public cannot find the information on these websites, he/she can write to the relevant Country Office in the field and/or to the unit in New York to ask For the document. If the document is denied, he/she can launch an appeal process. The process is captured in the flowchart below:
