DESCRIPTION OF REQUIREMENTS
UNON on behalf of UN-HABITAT Egypt Programme seeks the interest of qualified NGO/firms to participate in the upcoming solicitation exercise for the Development of Sharm El Sheikh Strategic Urban Plan - Mobility Sector. The primary task of the transportation and road network consultancy is developing a strategy for Sharm El Sheikh’s urban mobility including its transportation and road network. The scope of work consists of studying formal and informal transportation, planning for the city’s growth based on smart and environmentally friendly solutions, and identifying the needed urban mobility and street network projects until the target year 2045. The NGO/Firm will also be responsible for providing inputs to the strategic urban plan including development areas/projects, land use plan, basic urban services and planning/building regulations. Accordingly, the consultants work will include but will not be limited to the following transport-related elements of the plan:

A. Public transport (PT) systems
B. Non-motorized transport (NMT) facilities
C. Travel demand management
D. Land use-transport integration
E. Motorize transportation and connectivity with the surrounding cities and other main cities (Cairo and Hurghada as an example)
F. Studying and analyzing the impact of King Salman Bridge Project
G. Strategic vision for the mobility sector in the city
H. Indicate priority projects

Building on the above and under the supervision, leadership and coordination of the project manager and team leader, the Transportation and road network consultancy is expected to partner with a local consultant to achieve the below results:

1. Assessment of the existing conditions of the transportation systems and the overall urban mobility to understand the different type of links in and between neighborhoods, and also to understand the connection within the city and the surrounding urban communities to define the direction for transport demand, in addition to propose and evaluate the alternative transportation development scenarios.
2. Mapping all existing public transport services including formal and informal. Identification and collection of the needed primary and secondary data (traffic counts, public transport demand, and NMT demand and other related connectivity and mobility elements) that will be done through the local consultant.
3. Analysis of internal and external issues (International and Regional projects) to identify trends and main strengths and opportunities as well as weakness and threats the city’ transportation and road network are facing;
4. SWOT analysis and GAP analysis for the mobility sector.
5. Developing a vision for the city’s mobility with clear goals and development strategies incorporating smart and sustainable solutions.
6. Developing a strategic plan for the mobility sector identifying Phasing of implementation and list of Priority projects.

Additional details, specifications, and terms of reference shall be provided in the tender document to be issued subsequent to this EOI.

UNON invites companies to express their interest by filling out the vendor response form and sending it either electronically or via email. Interested vendors may forward their Expressions of Interest (EOI) along with the signed vendor forms to unhabitat-roas.quotations@un.org by 20 March 2020

All EOI submissions should be sent via email, citing the EOI reference number and title in the subject line.

IMPORTANT:
Please note that this EOI is not an invitation for submission of tenders. Its purpose is to identify eligible vendors that would be interested to participate in the related upcoming requirement.

The complete detail of the requirement will be issued to bidders after this request for EOI is closed. UNON reserves the right to change or cancel the requirement of this EOI at any time during the EOI and/or solicitation process. Submitting a reply to this REOI does not therefore automatically guarantee that your company will be considered for issuance of the solicitation documents. Only vendors who, in the UN's sole discretion, are deemed eligible and qualified, upon completion of an objective evaluation of the EOI submissions, may receive the final tender solicitation documents.
