In Indonesia, financing for SDGs is no longer dependent on foreign aid. At present, domestic financing resources – for example APBD – are combined with alternative financing resources that were not previously available, such as funding sourced from regional banks and philanthropy. SDGs financing through Islamic fund/zakat (in collaboration with the National Alms Agency/BAZNAS), crowdfunding to save Sumatran tiger, as well as seeking financial contribution from the private sector.

3. Action

To accelerate the achievement of SDGs, it is necessary to prioritize development. One of the acceleration programs for achieving SDGs is by setting up a pilot village, called the SDGs Village. The SDGs Village will implement priority development programs based on the RAD of SDGs, where:

- Program management is led by village apparatus;
- Program funding involves non-state actors support;
- Program implementation involves public consultation.

4. Monitoring

Baseline study on SDGs indicators for sub-national level.

Advocacy, Capacity Building & Knowledge Management

- Advocacy, capacity building, and knowledge management are essential to support the achievement of SDGs. These activities are conducted both at national and sub-national levels.

In addition, a comprehensive SDGs Achievement Report needs to be developed and disseminated at the sub-national level.

SDGs AND SUB-NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AGENDA

In 2015, UN member states agreed on 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to improve social welfare and economy, safeguard environmental sustainability and ensure sustainable development through inclusive governance.

The 17 SDGs have targets related to local development agendas. As policymakers, the sub-national government holds a key role in linking SDGs with the community. The sub-national governments play a role in coordinating the integration of SDGs into sub-national development policies, tailored to the potential and challenges in their respective regions.
