Enhancing Access to Justice through Institutional Reform (A2J) Project

Call for Proposals

Relating to Low Value Grants to Civil Society Organizations (CSOs)

Date of Publication: 21 February 2020

Enhancing Access to Justice through Institutional Reform (A2J) Project call for “Proposal Relating to Law Value Grants to Civil Society Organizations” from qualified and legally registered CSOs for the implementation of Legal awareness activities at 12 districts of Province # 2, Karnali Province and Sudur Paschim Provinces. Details are given in TOR document.

Eligibility Criteria

1. Meeting of all requirements as per TOR
2. Meeting of all legal requirements
3. Should be able to deliver task in a stipulated time frame

How to submit Low Value Grant Proposal:

1. The TOR document softcopies/hardcopies are available in below mentioned address through 10:00 hrs on Friday, 21 February 2020 until 15:00 hrs on Friday, 06 March, 2020.

   Contact Address:
   Enhancing Access to Justice through Institutional Reform(A2J) Project
   Babarmahal, Kathmandu, (Law Book Management Board’s Office premises- 2nd Floor)
   Nepal Tel: 977-01-4238303, 01-4238309
   In case of difficulty in obtaining ToR may request via email to address mentioned below
   Email: info@a2jnepal.org

2. The Low Value Grant Proposal must be prepared in line with the TOR provided and submitted to the hardcopies in the above address or softcopies to below email address not later than 17:00 hrs on Tuesday, 10 March 2020.
3. Email address for application submission: mcg2020@a2jnepal.org

Note: A2J Project reserves all rights to accept or reject the proposals for whatsoever reason.