About UNDP AFIM

The African Facility for Inclusive Markets (AFIM) is a regional project of the UN Development Program working to accelerate progress towards the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) by supporting the development of inclusive, pro-poor markets across Africa. This project is led by the Regional Bureau for Africa and implemented from the UNDP Regional Service Centre in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. AFIM’s particular focus is on the promotion of Inclusive Market Development in Africa through development and expansion of regional value chains in job creating sectors such as agribusiness, tourism, renewable energy, retailing and mining.

African Women and Youth Finance Digital Directory

www.africa-platform.org/WomenandYouthFinance

The United Nations Development Program’s African Facility for Inclusive Markets, in collaboration with the NEPAD Agency’s Africa Platform for Development Effectiveness (www.africa-platform.org) (also known as “APDev”) have developed a unique “living digital directory” - The African Women and Youth Finance Directory - to provide and disseminate information on funding sources and technical assistance programmes that provide support to women and youth run enterprises and organizations in Africa.

Key Directory Content

- Finance Resources for Women and Youth
- Inclusive Business Networks
- Development Partner Programmes for Youth and Women
- Calendar for Economic Events for Women and Youth
- Overview of Women in Africa and Access to Finance – Trends and Developments
- Overview of Youth in Africa and Access to Finance – Trends and Developments
Building Women and Youth Development Digital Community of Practice

In addition to being a “wiki inspired” directory where site visitors can suggest additional resources to be added to the Directory, the aim of the founding partners UNDP AFIM and the NEPAD Agency is to leverage the existing architecture of APDev portal and develop a community of practice for economic development practitioners, impact investors and other financiers, and women and youth enterprise promoters to engage, have e-discussions, post information on new funding and technical assistance initiatives and to facilitate match-making between those looking for support and those offering support. Site visitors interested in the Community of Practice will receive e-updates related to new content on the site, upcoming events and e-discussions.
