UNDP Access to Justice Initiatives

Vulnerable Persons’ Unit

- 3 VPU facilities built in Baucau PNTL Premises
- 5 to 28 cases
- GBV cases referred by VPU: from average 5 cases/month in 2016 to average 28 cases/month in 2018

Mobile Courts
(2015-2018, 9 municipalities)

- 2,505 cases assigned
- 1,542 cases adjudicated
- 3,412 beneficiaries
- 98% criminal cases
- 53% Gender-Based-Violence cases

Mothers and Babies

3,412 beneficiaries

98% criminal cases
53% Gender-Based-Violence cases
ACCESS TO JUSTICE CLINICS
January 2017 - September 2019

Legal Awareness
- 185 outreach campaigns
- 6,308 beneficiaries (Women 36%)

Case Registration
- 196 land disputes
- 254 cases
- 504 beneficiaries (Women 23%)

Mediation
- 259 facilitated cases
- 517 beneficiaries (Women 18%)

HUMAN STORIES

“... the AJCs held the mediation for the second time, where Luis and I could reach an agreement. I agreed to compensate Luis USD 2,000 in exchange for him renouncing his claim to the land. We forgave and accepted each other again as relatives...”
- AJC mediation beneficiary

“Thanks to the mobile courts, men and women in rural areas will be able to understand their rights and duties. If victims can only access courts located faraway and end up with no results and wasting time, they might feel that they are not as protected as they should be.”
- Family member of the disputant