Who we are

JIN ASEAN is a collaborative Network which brings together more than 1000 judges and judicial experts from 7 ASEAN countries to exchange experiences and expertise, focusing on delivering judicial excellence to ensure justice for all.

WE WORK WITH:

National courts (all-level instances including supreme and appeal courts), judicial training institutes and bar associations.

International partners: The International Consortium for Court Excellence, World Justice Project, International Association of Women Judges, National Center for State Courts

4 PHASES

- Phase 1 (2017 - 2019)
- Phase 2 (2019 - 2021)
- Phase 3 (2021 - 2023)
- Phase 4 (2023 - 2024)

7 MEMBER COUNTRIES

Cambodia, Malaysia, Thailand, Lao PDR, Indonesia, Philippines, Vietnam

Development Challenge

Corruption and lack of integrity in the judiciaries threaten justice delivery, undermining public trust in government institutions.

Between 2015 and 2022, the rule of law deteriorated in six ASEAN countries (data not available for Lao PDR and Brunei).

- -5.4% Average percentage change in the overall rule of law index score (2015-2022)
- -5.6% Average percentage change in absence of corruption score (2015-2022)

Source: WJP Rule of Law Index

Our targets (2022-2024)

- 2000+ Judges involved
- 50 Knowledge exchange initiatives organised
- 4 Court excellence self-assessments conducted
- 3 E-solutions to facilitating access to justice and ensuring transparency of judicial process developed
- 2 Knowledge documents published
- Ultimate goal: JIN ASEAN institutionalized as a regional platform to promote equal access to justice and improve public trust by strengthening judicial integrity.

Please visit our website and subscribe to the JIN ASEAN newsletter to get the latest updates on judicial integrity right to your inbox.

Contact person:

Tomas Kvedaras, Project Specialist, UNDP Bangkok Regional Hub

With the support of