

THE GENDER JUSTICE PLATFORM

UNDP and UN Women's partnership to advance gender equality and close the global gender justice gap

Gender equality and access to justice are essential for achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. Realizing this ambition requires an integrated response, based on the UN Delivering as One approach.

Since 2020, UNDP and UN Women have worked together to empower women, support their leadership and fulfil the promise of justice and human rights for all. In 2022, this partnership evolved into the Gender Justice Platform, a framework for strategic cooperation and upscaled joint initiatives.

Mission

Guided by a people-centered approach, the Gender Justice Platform seeks to advance gender equality and close the global gender justice gap by enhancing women's access to justice and supporting women's meaningful participation and leadership in the justice and security sectors.

Objective

The Gender Justice Platform brings together diverse stakeholders, including governments, civil society, academia and UN entities, with a commitment to:

-  Promote women's meaningful participation and leadership in the justice and security sectors;
-  Support gender-responsive and people-centred justice and security service delivery;
-  Contribute to policy discourse on gender equality and the rule of law through innovative, intersectional, evidence-informed analysis and learning.

Our Areas of Work

To increase women's meaningful participation and access to justice

-  Addressing discrimination in legal frameworks, including constitutions;
-  Expanding legal aid provision to respond to women's immediate justice needs;
-  Meeting women's demands for transformative justice in the context of building peace, including the fight against impunity;
-  Supporting comprehensive rule of law reforms to advance gender equality.

Key Achievements

Almost 43,000 people (84% women) in 18 countries accessed to justice;

Nearly 5 million people were reached through awareness-raising campaigns on women's rights;

Implemented an improved gender-sensitive monitoring and evaluation (M&E) measurement system;

Over 20 UN and civil society partners engaged with the platform.

Knowledge Generation and Policy Support

The Gender Justice Platform develops ground-breaking publications to inform strategic programming. Knowledge products developed under the umbrella of the Platform include:

Women's meaningful participation in transitional justice: Advancing gender equality and building sustainable peace

Women, peace, and security and the United Nations Global Focal Point for the Rule of Law: Promoting gender justice for peaceful and inclusive societies

Documenting good practice on accountability for conflict-related sexual violence: The Sepur Zarco case

Identifying gender persecution in conflict and atrocities: A toolkit for investigators of crimes against humanity

How the Gender Justice Platform Operates

As a flexible network for joint initiatives and programming, the Platform implements its activities through UNDP's Global Programme for Rule of Law, Human Rights, Justice and Security for Sustainable Peace and Development following the framework of UNDP's Gender Equality Strategy, and through UN Women's Global Facility for Women, Peace and Security.

The Platform operates in close coordination with the UN Global Focal Point for the Rule of Law with valuable financial support from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Government of the Netherlands, the Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) of Germany, and the Prevention of Sexual Violence Initiative of the United Kingdom's Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Contact us for more information

Lorena Mellado, Policy Specialist,
Rule of Law, Justice and Human Rights, UNDP:
lorena.mellado@undp.org

Emily Kenney, Policy Specialist,
Rule of Law and Transitional
Justice, UN Women:
emily.kenney@unwomen.org