

Yemen Food Security Response and Resilience Project- June 2023

Funded by the World Bank's International Development Association (IDA), the Yemen Food Security Response and Resilience Project (FSRRP) is implemented by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations (FAO), World Food Programme (WFP), and International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC).

UNDP's component of FSRRP improves agricultural production infrastructure and builds climate resilience in partnership with the Social Fund for Development (SFD), and the Public Works Project (PWP).

11,209

households with improved food security (30% expected to be female-headed)

13,345

people benefited from work opportunities (2,238 women)

386,849

workdays created (54,712 for women)

2,451

hectares of improved and protected lands

337

farmers with improved access to water resources (8 women)

2,979

hectares of constructed and improved irrigation canals

33

kilometres of improved rural roads

405

cubic metres of constructed and improved rainwater harvesting tanks

3,369

farmers with improved access to land resources (819 women)