

Yemen Food Security Response and Resilience Project - September 2023

FSRRP
YEMEN FOOD SECURITY
RESPONSE AND RESILIENCE PROJECT

Funded by the World Bank's International Development Association (IDA), the Yemen Food Security Response and Resilience Project (FSRRP) is implemented by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), and the World Food Programme.

UNDP's component of FSRRP improves agricultural production infrastructure and builds climate resilience in partnership with the Social Fund for Development (SFD) and the Public Works Project (PWP).

13,249

households with improved food security (30% expected to be female-headed)

504,860

workdays created (71,716 for women)

15,830

people benefit from work opportunities (2,443 women)

4,687

hectares of improved and protected lands

1,721

farmers with improved access to water resources (874 women)

17,375

metres of constructed and improved irrigation canals

4,912

farmers with improved access to land resources (1,163 women)

70

kilometres of improved agricultural roads

15,297

cubic metres of constructed and improved rainwater harvesting tanks