- Sustaining basic infrastructure for MSMEs
- Access to business development services
- Reskilling and upskilling the labor force, income generation
- Startup-ecosystem for youth
- Green transformation
- Urban and rural development

APPROACH: RESILIENCE FROM THE START

Resilience from the start is the core principle for addressing the multiple consequences of the crisis. To enhance resilience of individuals, communities, and institutions, UNDP joins forces with other stakeholders leveraging links between humanitarian and development actors, within the Humanitarian-Development-Peace Nexus.

REQUIRED FUNDING 2023 – 2026

ANTICIPATED RESULTS

Enhance resilience and the comprehensive integration of refugees into Armenian society while balancing the multiple needs of refugees with existing gaps and vulnerabilities in the local communities.

1
STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE
Emergency response and stabilization
(Months 1-12)

50,000+ refugees and locals in host communities benefit from comprehensive response measures through improved shelter, improved critical infrastructure, upgraded medical facilities, winterization support and psycho-social assistance.

2
STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE
Sustaining core government functions and services
(Months 1-36)

National and sub-national systems sustain core government functions and extend public services to all refugees and host communities by introducing durable solutions, enhancing existing support structures, greater crisis preparedness, and ensuring access to justice and human rights protection.

3
STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE
Inclusive, equitable and green economic growth
(Months 3-36)

Expanded income-generation opportunities for 10,000+ refugees and host community members, with a focus on youth and women, through reskilling and upskilling programmes, green entrepreneurship support, supporting start-up ecosystems, and revamped urban and rural development opportunities.

4
STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE
Social cohesion
(Months 6-36)

National dialogue, trust and social cohesion fostered at the national, sub-national and host community levels, contributing to the smooth integration of refugees. Refugees and host communities are empowered to rebuild their lives with resilience and dignity, acknowledging the unique challenges they face.
