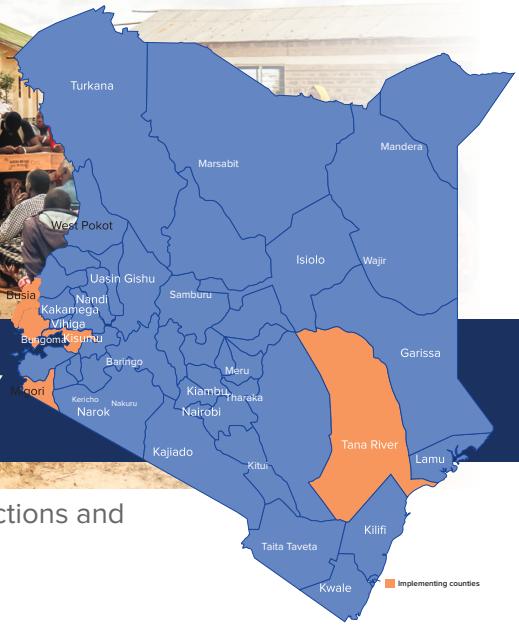
UNDP KENYA IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF GERMANY

#PartnersAtCore (#WashirikaWakuu)



Germany has been a key UNDP development partner fostering peaceful elections and strengthening the innovation ecosystem in Kenya.

OUR WORK

Strengthened Conflict Prevention & Early Warning

- Trained 5,132 individuals (38% female, 62% male) in conflict prevention and mediation.
- Enhanced monitoring of hate speech and misinformation before, during, and after the 2022 elections.

Countered Misinformation & Hate Speech

- Flagged 550,000+ toxic posts related to elections on Facebook.
- Increased digital incitement detections from 20 to 200+ cases per month.

Enhanced Access to Credible Election Information

- Updated 1,128 Wikipedia entries, published 169 news articles, and added 2,475 datasets to WikiData.
- Counter-messaging campaigns reached 36.4 million Kenyans via digital and print media.

Accelerated Innovation & Digital Inclusion

- Supported 70+ startups to scale solutions, boosting Kenya's innovation ecosystem.
- Trained 200 women in web development, linking them to jobs and entrepreneurship.
- Launched 'Chichwa' e-commerce platform, enabling 100 women traders to expand their digital market reach.

Leveraged Data for Climate Action

- Mapped 1,765 water sources in Tana River, leading to the rehabilitation of four boreholes benefiting 1,920 households.
- Engaged 43 community data stewards to improve water management.
- Mapped livestock migration routes, guiding water infrastructure placement to reduce farmer-herder conflicts.
