

2030 POST

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

OCTOBER 3, 2017 ISSUE 02

Undersecretary Rosemarie G. Edillion, National Economic and Development Authority, Philippines

“

Agenda 2030 is about ensuring that each segment of society and each generation is accorded the best opportunity of development for reaching their full potential. The short-term planning horizon of governments, could be the major obstacle to the successful implementation of Agenda 2030.

Peseta Noumea Simi, Chief Executive Officer, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Samoa

“

The translation of ambition into action for the SDGs and our national development strategy implementation relies on increased investment in human and institutional capacities as cornerstones of substantive and inclusive development.

Amalia Adininggar Widyasanti, Director for Macro Planning and Statistics, BAPPENAS, Indonesia

“

National commitment and leaders guidance are very important to ensure the policy coherence for SDGs implementation in a country. Integrating the SDGs into, a country's development planning will be very beneficial for a country to achieve its development goals.
