dialogue for the future

United Nations

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

The joint regional program "Dialogue for the Future" is implemented by UNDP, UNICEF and UNESCO, with the support of the offices of the UN Resident Coordinators in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro and Serbia, and with the financial support of the UN Peacebuilding Fund (PBF). The overall goal of the DFF programme is to help create more spaces for constructive dialogue between various communities, between citizens and their highest elected leaders, thus promoting peaceful coexistence, increased trust and genuine respect for diversity.

OVERVIEW OF RESULTS

working in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro and the Republic of Serbia, engaging partners from government, civil society, education and academia:

CAPACITY BUILDING

1.230

adolescents and youth trained in socio-emotional skills, advocacy, leadership, teamwork, interculturalism, mobile journalism, public policy processes, media and information literacy

221

girls and women empowered for social activism through educational seminars on leadership, gender parity, social cohesion

490

teachers and librarians capacitated to teach media and information literacy, and civic education

108

journalists and editors in learning events on media and information literacy and objective reporting

SUPPORT TO JOINT IDENTIFICATION AND ACTION ON SOCIAL COHESION PRIORITIES

19

dialogue events with 1.535 participants across three countries

19

cross-border grant projects enabling 43 partnerships

over

7.000

direct beneficiaries

25

community projects by adolescents and youth in 33 municipalities/cities

PUBLIC POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS

- Recommendations included in 8 sectoral documents for youth, education and gender e quality policies
- Engaging institutional partners

INOVATION

- Innovative online mentoring platform for women
- Media pact
- Declaration on media and information literacy and social cohesion

United Nations Peacebuilding

Sustaining Peace