250+ PARTICIPANTS

Saket and showed the power of being together and creating an inclusive society for all. The event started with a powerful yet innocent dance performance by the kids of Nine Is Mine Organization, followed by an inspiring session of listening to the experiences, challenges and creative spoken word of people from different communities. They fearlessly shared their journey stories with a lots of ups and downs and proved that inclusion is their right and not a privilege.

Hands joined making a heart, people hugging each other and all faces smiling, this is how we started with the freemob in which all the 250 participants were standing in the freemob positions and after that we started with the flashmob to dance together in unity and let the idea of inclusivity sink in. A Human Chain was formed at the end, joining hands presenting the power of strength and togetherness among all.

A message that we can become more inclusive if we join hands with each other and let them live the way they are, was delivered. The event was wrapped up with a soothing band performance by Salaam Band from Afghan Refugee community and felicitation of NGOs that joined us and have been relentlessly working towards their respective causes. This was how 250+ people came together to celebrate International Volunteer Day and to pledge to become inclusive for all.
