Personal and Family Income

Respondents that declared the paid working hours of the main income earners of the household was not impacted by COVID-19

- 75% in March 2021
- 55% in November 2020
- 30% in May 2020

Mental Health and Domestic Violence

23% declared that their psychological or mental health was affected in March 2021, compared to 36% in November 2020 and 28% during in May 2020.

More respondents had witnessed illness of a family member in March 2021 (28%), compared to November 2020 (16%) and May 2020 (5%), or experienced physical illness themselves (15% round 3, 11% round 2 and 2% round 1).

Access to Basic Services

Access to basic services has overall improved when comparing the March 2021 results with those from May and November 2020.

Some difficulties have persisted: Respondents reported some difficulties or major difficulties in regard to:

- accessing food products (18%, compared to 26% in November 2020)
- health services (17%, compared to 24% in November 2020).

Fewer households reduced their spending on leisure activities to compensate for loss, or potential loss, of income in March 2021 (57%) as compared to November 2020 (74%).

Over half of the respondents still perceived that domestic violence has increased (52%) since the spread of COVID-19 (59% in November 2020, and 56% in May 2020).

27% did not know where to seek help and support when experiencing domestic violence (30% of women, 27% of men).