

UN
DP

MEET OUR PARTNERS

Mr. Inthy Deuansavanh

Green Discovery offers outstanding adventure travel and eco-tourism throughout every corner of Laos. Green Discovery is more than just a successful travel company. They are proud of our record of social, cultural, and environmental responsibility. The company tries to bridge the gap between doing business and persevering for the natural environment.

Dr. Khamtan Phonethip

Faculty of Forestry / Wood Science and Wood Products Research Center has worked with several Agro-forestry companies and international organizations to conduct various scientific project on wood processing. The main purposes of research are to build “value-adding to Lao PDR plantation timber products” and “enhancing key elements of value chains for plantation-grown wood in Lao PDR”.

Mr. Phonesavanh Chindamany

Mekong Timber Plantation manages an existing plantation estate in Laos with a focus on improving silvicultural practices and ensuring the business meets international best practices such as IFC and FSC for responsible forest management.

Mr. Vannavong Sithamalath

Tomi Atelier Architect and Design is a local firm that provides services of modern architecture / interior & exterior design. The company has been using renewable materials such as rattan and bamboo for building design. Examples of building are Café Buratino and Dough & Co.

Mr. Zack Aphivong

Thaan Fun is an organic farm where fruits and plants are grown to process into Natural Laundry Detergent, Dish Soap, and All-in-One Cleaner. Thaan Fun also offers refilled products and other products to several shops and hotels in Lao PDR such as Re.Root.Lifestyle, DakDae, Luangprabang View, Namthan Ecolust, Payathip International School, etc.

Our products combine ancient Lao herbal wisdom with the modern understanding on how beneficial micro-flora can bring healing to the human and environment.

Mr. Peter Thiphommachanh

Mittaphap Center is a Lao, non-political, non-religious, non-profit organization. The organization also brings Laos and foreign volunteers together for the purpose of educating within disadvantaged rural communities. Mittaphap also produces environmentally friendly products such as mud brick for building construction.

Mr. Andy Schroeter

Sunlabob provides full-spectrum support for renewable energy projects, from “soft” consultancy, design, training and monitoring services to “hard” supply, installation and maintenance. Sunlabob focuses on renewable energy applications technically and economically.

Mr. Siviengphet Phommalath

Mr. Outhit Sayavong

PML Easbeam is a local company that produces renewable construction materials from plantation grown timber. They specialize in the design and /or implementation of high quality Laminated veneer Lumber; and provides construction design, manufacture, repair, refit and house and building and electrical construction job for many projects in Laos for the last 7 years.

Ms. Souvita Keopaseuth

Lao Magic Carpets Handicrafts produces exquisite hand-made pile carpets and flatweaves (kilims) from high quality hand-spun silk and is a socially oriented enterprise in Laos to train and provide jobs to women and disable people from rural village and urban area.

Mr. Tony Wu

Lao Biogas is the sole distributor for Home-biogas systems in Laos. The company offers home and industrial biogas systems that can digest organic waste in order to produce biogas and biofertilizers. Their Vision is to turn waste into energy technology which is easy, convenient, and accessible to everyone.

Ms. Malavong Maniseng

Recycle Art Laos produces decorative arts and souvenirs from 100% recycled paper. Products include 3D pictures, wall paintings and signage. The purpose is to create reliable quality recycle artwork to become a trustful manufacturer.

