CIVIL SOCIETY DEVELOPMENT

MEDICAL INSTITUTIONS ON THE LEFT BANK OF THE NISTRU RIVER

drew from the experience of Chisinau in creating and maintaining palliative care services for cancer patients.

Schools for parents were created in Criuleni and Tiraspol. ANNUALLY OVER 400 WOMEN give birth at the Criuleni hospital and OVER 1,600 at the Tiraspol Mother and Child Centre.

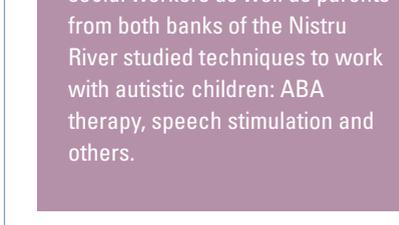

FIRST AID TRAINING CENTRES ESTABLISHED IN BENDER AND VARNITA

volunteers teach first aid techniques for medical emergencies: drowning, thermal injuries, suffocation with foreign items, road accidents, fractures and other cases of risk to life and health.

More than 120 SPEECH THERAPISTS, teachers, psychologists, other social workers as well as parents from both banks of the Nistru River studied techniques to work with autistic children: ABA therapy, speech stimulation and others.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE

who practice parkour, break dance, hip-hop, street ball, DJ-ing and graffiti took over the central parks of Chisinau and Tiraspol for one day, and conquered the hearts of their residents – forever.

14 YOUNG FILMMAKERS

from the right and left bank of the Nistru River developed seven unique documentaries after being trained. Subsequently, the films were screened in seven localities: Chisinau, Tiraspol, Molovata Noua, Holercani, Dorotcaia, Ribnita and Malaiesti.

HOLERCANI AND TIRNAUCA VILLAGES

found themselves on the pages of a book of tales and legends.

OVER 100 CHILDREN FROM BOTH BANKS participated in the football festival "Together we are a team!", that included an entertainment programme: competitions and camp fires. Their schools received equipment worth 13,000 lei.
