HUMAN RIGHTS IMPACT ASSESSMENT GUIDELINE:

Case of Tavan Tolgoi Coal Cluster Deposits Mining and Logistics Operations

Ch.Altangerel

Director of Secretariat, NHRCM

WHAT IS HUMAN RIGHTS IMPACT ASSESSMENT (HRIA)?

- HRIA is a process to identify, assess, mitigate or reduce the impact of specific policies, programmes, projects and business activities on human rights.
- HRIA aims to develop a fact-based due diligence of many factors that can affect human rights, inform stakeholders and create positive change.
- HRIA focuses on fostering of cooperation and partnership among the respective parties to eliminate and prevent from human rights violations, rather than the immediate termination of the policies, programs, projects or business activities.

HUMAN RIGHTS DUE DILIGENCE AND COVID-19: A Rapid Self-Assessment for Businesses:

M.Mandkhai

Business and Human Rights National
Consultant, UNDP Mongolia

OBJECTIVE

- The rapid self-assessment is a guidance to businesses who are seeking to identify and manage potential human rights impacts of their business operations during the Covid-19 pandemic.
- It comprises of 6 areas and 58 questions.

Occupational Health & Safety

Labour Rights

Environmental & Community Impacts

Safeguarding
Privacy

Preventing Stigma &
Discrimination

Corporate Policy &
Management
Considerations

SELF-ASSESSMENT OUTCOME BY SEVERAL COMPANIES

Approximately 10 companies completed the self-assessment. On average 80% of the questions answered “YES” or satisfied the requirements.

However, 3- 4 areas were insufficient.

1. Corporate policy & Management- 73%
2. Environmental & Community Impacts - 75%
3. Safeguarding Privacy - 78%
4. Preventing Stigma & Discrimination – 80%

THE FOLLOWING THREE QUESTIONS RECEIVED THE LOWEST RATE IN THE CORPORATE POLICY & MANAGEMENT:

- Make timely payments and/ or extend credit to small and medium-sized suppliers and retailers to ensure their viability through the COVID-19 crises in line with applicable government stimulus policies.
- Communicate the company’s human rights policy commitment to internal and external stakeholders.
- Conduct human rights due diligence to identify, prevent, mitigate and account for adverse human rights impacts related to COVID-19
