HUMAN STORIES

“... the AJCs held the mediation for the second time, where Luis and I could reach an agreement. I agreed to compensate Luis USD 2,000 in exchange for him renouncing his claim to the land. We forgave and accepted each other again as relatives...”

- AJC mediation beneficiary

“Thanks to the mobile courts, men and women in rural areas will be able to understand their rights and duties. If victims can only access courts located faraway and end up with no results and wasting time, they might feel that they are not as protected as they should be.”
