

YECRP

YEMEN EMERGENCY
CRISIS RESPONSE PROJECT

As of December 2017

HEALTH

853

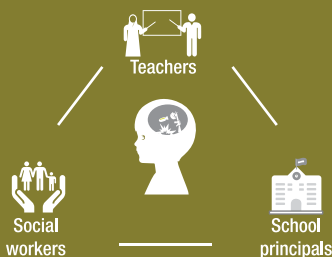

Community mid-wives, paramedics, physician assistants, health staff and nurses trained on maternal and newborn healthcare, health management, Integrated Management of Childhood Illnesses (IMCI), and premature and neonatal care

EDUCATION

2,875

Female and male teachers trained on improving their teaching practices and skills on interactive learning and reading, writing and numeracy for their students

672

Trained on psycho-social support, social peace and conflict management, and provision of psychological support to students traumatized by the conflict

AGRICULTURE

650

Farmers in deprived rural areas trained on the usage of modern farming techniques and improved practices to increase productivity

62

Crop farmers supported with solar water pumps and modern techniques to save on fuel and water

206

Fishermen trained on modern technologies to improve productivity

116

GPS and fish finding devices distributed to fishermen to increase production and reduce the amount of fuel and time spent by artisan fishermen in identifying locations of fish

FISHERY

